

WHERE IS THE LOVE

CRISTINA
BLÀZQUEZ

"Where is the love?" is the first single from The Black Eyed Peas. This song was released on 10th March 2003. The single is considered a pacifist anthem that calls society to reflect on what is happening in the world. It's a claim to violence, terrorism, the hypocrisy of the North American government, intolerance and the indifference of the people to the problems of others. The lyrics question why people act as if they had no family, they complain about problems, but they are in front of them and they do nothing.

I chose the song "Where is the love" by The Black-Eyed Peas. This song is a pacifist anthem and its meaning is a call for violence, terrorism, the hypocrisy of American government, intolerance and indifference of people to the problems of others.

We see it all on social media, on television and we even hear it on the radio: bombings, shootings, wars... and again we ask ourselves, where is the love? This song makes me feel sad because today we still live in a country where people who have powers whether they are so political, economic... are above our values.
