WARRIORS

This song deals about a group of people who have raised a city from the dust or ruin caused by a war.

I have chosen this song for what it transmits, for the strength of the lyrics and because the rythm it has I really like.

He transmits to me that the people they talk are people of great value who should be proud of what they have done to make the place where they life goes ahead.

